Meet our Common Room Presidents

Junior Common Room President – George Little

Congratulations on securing your place at Durham University! You should be incredibly proud of yourself for reaching this milestone, and we at Trevelyan College are absolutely thrilled to welcome you into our community.

My name is George, and I am your JCR President for this academic year.

One of the best aspects of life at Trevs is the JCR; Junior Common Room. It's a student-run body that provides many aspects of the student experience and sets Trevs apart.

All of the students and staff here at Trevs are committed to giving you the best experience throughout your time at Durham. I can't wait to meet you all and welcome you to Trevelyan College in September!

Middle Common Room President – Dan Scobbie

Hello, I'm Dan, this year's MCR president at Trevelyan College. I'm looking forward to welcoming you all to the college soon!

When you arrive in Durham you will become a member of the college middle common room (MCR), which is the postgraduate community within the college.

We are a small but close-knit and active group of postgraduate students with a vast range of subject knowledge, backgrounds, and interests. The MCR runs events throughout the year and participation at any level is a great way to meet new people and have fun!
